Panchenko Law Firm Receives 2025 Carmel Award for Personal Injury Services

January 29, 2026

CHARLOTTE, NC - January 29, 2026 -
Panchenko Law Firm has been named a recipient of the Best of 2025 Carmel Award in the Personal Injury Attorney Services category, recognizing the Charlotte-based firm's commitment to exceptional client service and legal representation. The award, announced in late 2025, is based on a review-driven program that evaluates businesses through verified client feedback and five-star ratings.

The Carmel Award represents a third-party validation of service excellence, with recipients selected based on consistent positive client experiences documented through hundreds of reviews across multiple platforms. For Panchenko Law Firm Best of 2025 Carmel Award personal injury lawyer recognition, the honor reflects the firm's approach of combining legal expertise with genuine client care throughout the claims process.

Founded through the merger of two client-focused practices, Panchenko Law Firm serves Charlotte and surrounding areas with comprehensive personal injury representation. The firm handles auto accidents, truck collisions, motorcycle crashes, pedestrian incidents, workers' compensation claims, slip-and-fall cases, and wrongful death matters. The practice has built its reputation through consistent client experiences rather than advertising volume, emphasizing responsiveness, clear communication, and personal attention to each case.

"This award validates what our clients have been telling us through their reviews and testimonials," said Dmitriy Panchenko, founder and attorney at the firm. "Every Charlotte personal injury lawyer on our team understands that behind every case is a person facing uncertainty and disruption. The recognition reflects our commitment to treating cases as responsibilities rather than files, and maintaining accessibility when clients need us most."

Client reviews consistently highlight themes of prompt communication, proactive follow-up, and feeling supported throughout the legal process. The firm maintains 24/7 multilingual support availability and offers free case reviews with no fees unless the case is won. These service elements have contributed to hundreds of five-star reviews that formed the basis for the Carmel Award selection.

The firm's legal team brings substantial experience to personal injury representation. Dmitriy Panchenko earned his finance degree from UNC Charlotte Magna Cum Laude and his law degree from Charlotte School of Law Cum Laude, graduating in the top 10 percent of his class. Andrew Deschler, attorney with the firm, previously served as Assistant District Attorney in Rowan County, prosecuting DWIs, serious felonies, and jury trials.

The practice has achieved notable case results including a $750,000 motorcycle wrongful death settlement and multiple significant settlements across auto, truck, and workers' compensation matters. Past results do not guarantee similar outcomes, but the firm's track record demonstrates consistent advocacy for injury victims seeking fair compensation for their losses.

Panchenko Law Firm combines honest guidance with prompt communication, maintaining that professionalism and empathy are baseline standards rather than competing values. The firm provides step-by-step guidance to clients navigating the complexities of personal injury claims, workers' compensation processes, and insurance negotiations. With the Carmel Award recognition, the firm continues its mission of delivering both effective legal outcomes and supportive client experiences for Charlotte area injury victims.
